“chick with a guitar,”
monique rust is a (song)writer/
guitarist/performer
who pulls from her
experiences being a
woman, mother,
and

citizen-of-the-planet as inspiration for her
uniquely americana,
folksy / bluesy soul-
sound.
...in a blessed (if bittersweet)

synergy, monique’s
roots in human/social/cultural
rights have married
naturally to her activism
via voice, word, and
song...
she has been lucky to

share a stage
with other impassioned
souls
such as those of the 2017 women’s
march-ers and with
mister bernie
sanderson.
